*This conference reported the combined active and inactive membership for each pastoral charge. In order that a fair comparison of the active an inactive membership of each district could be made with the 1951 figures, it was necessary to insert the 1951 inactive membership figure for each di trict, and subtract it from the combined 1952 figure.

STATISTICAL REVIEW

Statistical totals for the domestic Conferences at the time of unification, for the last year of each of the two quadrenniums since, and for 1951 and 1952. The latter figure becomes the total for the final year of the third quadrennium. This summary, taken from the Secretary's report and the Statistician's and Treasurer's report of each Annual Conference, is presented for the purpose of giving certain information not appearing in the Condensed Tables also received from those Conferences. Complete report for 1940 not available.

THE METHODIST CHURCH

Nov. 25, 1952

Decision No. 88

Re: Question proposed by Ruben V. Candelaria, Delegate from the Philippines Annual Conference, and referred by the General Conference to the Judicial Council for a Declaratory Decision

(See Pages 549 and 575, Daily Christian Advocate, 1952)

DIGEST

A retired member of an Annual Conference may be elected to membership in a Central Conference if he meets the conditions required by law of all those who represent their annual conferences in the General or Central Conference.

STATEMENTS

The above captioned matter arose in the following manner: On May 6, 1952, Dr. W. A. Stanbury presented to the General Conference, on behalf of the Judicial Council, a brief report on a matter that had been previously referred to the Judicial Council. When Dr. Stanbury had concluded this report, the following transpired:

Bishop Reed: Thank you. While we are on the matter of the report from the Judicial Council, will you permit the Chair to grant the courtesy of the floor to a delegate from the Philippines on a matter of reference to the Judicial Council?

Ruben V. Candelaria (Philippines, OS): Mr. Chairman and members of the General Conference, I certainly do not wish to take this moment, knowing we are pressed with time. I have two questions regarding our Central Conference in the Philippines:

First: Can a retired member of an Annual Conference now appointed as a supply pastor be elected to the Central Conference?

Second: Can a Committee of Investigation under certain circumstances terminate a case and render a decision?

With the permission of this body I move these be referred to the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision.

Bishop Reed: You have heard the motion. Is it seconded?

(The motion was duly seconded.)

Bishop Reed: As many as will refer indicate it with the uplifted hand; contrary the same. It is done.

Later that same afternoon (Page 575, Daily Christian Advocate), consent was asked for the privilege of announcing the Judicial Council's decision on these questions "at the next meeting following the adjournment of the General Conference."

Jurisdiction

The General Conference, under Subdivision 5 of Article II of Division Four of the Constitution (Paragraph 43 of the 1952 Discipline), has broad powers in the matter of conferring additional jurisdiction upon the Judicial Council. This Paragraph 43 of the Discipline sets out the Constitutional duties and powers of the Judicial Council, and ends with this Subdivision 5, reading as follows:

> 5. To have such other duties and powers as may be conferred upon it by the General Conference.

Since these questions were specifically submitted by the General Conference to the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision thereon, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that, under the constitutional provision above quoted, it has jurisdiction to render such requested declaratory decision.

Question "A"

Can a retired member of an Annual Conference now appointed as a supply pastor be elected to the Central Conference?

Analysis

Article IV of the Constitution of The Methodist Church (Paragraph 24 of the 1952 Discipline) reads as follows:

> The ministerial delegates to the General Conference and to the Jurisdictional or Central Conference shall be elected by the ministerial members of the Annual Conference, provided that such delegates shall have been traveling preachers in the constituent churches forming this union, or in The Methodist Church, for at least four years next preceding their election and are in full connection with the Annual Conference electing them when elected and at the time of holding the General and Jurisdictional or Central Conferences.

To answer correctly the question here under consideration, it appears advisable that the Judicial Council shall first determine the true meaning of the above quoted provision in the Constitution relating to the qualifications of the ministerial delegates to the General Conference. In order to arrive at a satisfactory interpretation of this provision, a review of the background of same, as reflected in the Discipline and judicial decisions of the "Constituent Churches forming the union" seems important.

The Constitution of the Methodist Protestant Church contains the following provisions:

> 2. The General Conference of the Church shall consist of an equal number of ministers and laymen. (Sec. 2, Art. VIII of the 1936 Discipline.)

No other qualifications were prescribed for the ministerial delegates to the General Conference.

The Constitution of the Methodist Episcopal Church (Paragraph 82 of the 1936 Discipline) defined the qualifications of ministerial delegates to the General Conference as follows:

> Such delegates shall be Elders at least twenty-five years of age, and shall have been Members of an Annual Conference at least four successive years, and at the time of their election and at the time of the session of the General Conference shall be Members of the Annual Conference which elected them.

The Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South defined the qualifications of its ministerial delegates to the General Conference as follows:

> Question: Who compose the General Conference, and what are the regulations and powers belonging to it?

Answer 2: The clerical representatives shall be elected by the clerical members of the Annual Conference; provided that such representatives shall have been traveling preachers at least four calendar years preceding their election, and are in full connection with an Annual Conference when elected, and also at the time of holding the General Conference. (Page 29, Discipline of 1938)

It will be observed that the present law on this subject is identical in all essential parts with the law as it existed in the Methodist Episcopal Church, South. It is to be presumed that no change in its meaning was intended by its insertion in the Constitution of The Methodist Church. At least there seems to be no evidence of any intended change in its meaning and application.

In the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, any member of an Annual Conference, whether active or retired, was considered a "traveling preacher." In that church even a preacher "on trial" was considered to be a "traveling preacher" and, under the Episcopal Decision rendered in 1914, never overruled and quoted below, could be elected to the General Conference provided he had traveled four calendar years and had been received into full connection by the time of the election:

Par. 676. What Traveling Preachers can be elected Delegates to the General Conference?

The four "Calendar Years" a preacher must have traveled before he can be elected a delegate to the General Conference should be counted from the time of his reception on trial (1914). (Par. 676, 1938 Discipline)

Historically, retired members of an Annual Conference have been eligible to election as delegates to the General Conference. The General Conference of 1808, that established the General Conference as a delegated body, was composed of 131 preachers, three of whom were superannuates (Journal of the 1808 General Conference). They were elected under a provision of the 1804 Discipline reading as follows:

Who compose the General Conference?

All the preachers who shall have traveled four years from the time they were received on trial by an annual conference, and are in full connection at the time of holding the conference. (Page 15, Discipline F 1804)

The General Conference of The Methodist Episcopal Church, passing upon the question of whether or not a retired minister could be elected as a delegate to the General Conference, ruled as follows:

46. A retired minister is eligible to election as a delegate to the General Conference. (Journal of the General Conference, 1932, p. 611.) (Par. 101.46—1936 Discipline).

The Discipline of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, answering the question, "Who shall compose an Annual Conference?" provided as follows:

All the traveling preachers in full connection with it. (Page 33, 1938 Discipline)

No distinction is made here between preachers in the effective relationship and those in the retired relationship. A minister did not cease to be a member of the Annual Conference upon his superannuation. He therefore continued to be a "traveling preacher" although not actually serving a charge, as the Annual Conference, so far as its clerical membership was concerned, was composed only of "traveling preachers."

The Judicial Council in its decision, rendered to the General Conference at its 1952 session (Pages 527-528 of the Daily Christian Advocate), reaffirmed this historic relationship of retired ministers to the Annual Conference. (See Decision No. 87 of the Judicial Council.)

Based on the historical interpretations of what constitutes a "traveling preacher" and on who compose the General Conference, it appears that a retired minister, meeting the other qualifications for membership in the General Conference, is eligible for election as a member of the General Conference regardless of whether he is or is not serving as a supply pastor.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that a retired member of an Annual Conference serving as a supply pastor is eligible to election as a delegate to the General Conference (and to a jurisdictional or Central Conference) provided he has been a "traveling preacher" (on trial or in full connection) in The Methodist Church for at least four years next preceding his election and is in full connection with the Annual Conference electing him when elected and at the time of holding the General Conference.

Re: Question proposed by Ruben V. Candelaria, Delegate from the Philippines Annual Conference, and referred by the General Conference to the Judicial Council for a Declaratory Decision

(See Pages 549 and 575, Daily Christian Advocate, 1952)

DIGEST

A Committee on Investigation has authority only to inquire whether or not the accused person is guilty of committing one of the offenses enumerated in Par. 921. Its findings must be certified and declared to the Annual Conference by the District Superintendent. If in the judgment of the Committee the evidence does seem to substantiate the accusation, the Committee has no alternative but to prepare and file the proper charges and specifications.

STATEMENT

The above captioned matter arose in the following manner: On May 6, 1952, Dr. W. A. Stanbury presented to the General Conference, on behalf of the Judicial Council, a brief report on a matter that had been previously referred to the Judicial Council. (Page 549, Daily Christian Advocate, 1952)

Later that same afternoon (Page 575, Daily Christian Advocate), consent was asked for the privilege of announcing the Judicial Council's decision on these questions "at the next meeting following the adjournment of the General Conference."

Jurisdiction

The General Conference, under Subdivision 5 of Article II of Division Four of the Constitution (Paragraph 43 of the 1952 Discipline), has broad powers in the matter of conferring additional jurisdiction upon the Judicial Council. This Paragraph 43 of the Discipline sets out the Constitutional duties and powers of the Judicial Council, and ends with this Subdivision 5, reading as follows:

5. To have such other duties and powers as may be conferred upon it by the General Conference.

Since these questions were specifically submitted by the General Conference to the Judicial Council for a declaratory decision thereon, it is the decision of the Judicial Council that, under the constitional provision above quoted, it has jurisdiction to render such requested declaratory decision.

Question "B"

Can a Committee on Investigation, under certain circumstances, terminate a case and render a decision? As, for instance, when the accused admits the charge or charges against him?

Analysis

The following paragraphs from the 1952 Discipline of The Methodist Church are pertinent to the question under consideration:

Paragraph 921. A bishop or traveling preacher on trial in an Annual Conference shall be liable to accusation and trial upon any of the following charges:
(a) UnChristian tempers, words or actions.
(b) Disobedience to the order and discipline of the Church.
(c) Imprudent or unministerial conduct.
(d) Habitual neglect of duties as a member or officer in the Church.
(e) Disseminating doctrines contrary to the Articles of Religion or other established standards of doctrine of the Church.
(f) Immorality or crime.
(g) Maladministration in office in the Church.

Paragraph 932. If a traveling preacher or a preacher on trial, in the interval between sessions of his conference shall be accused of any of the offenses enumerated in Paragraph 921, his District Superintendent, or the Superintendent of the District within the bounds of which such acts are alleged to have taken place, shall call the Committee of Investigation to inquire into same, and, if possible, bring the accused and the accuser face to face; the accused shall have the right to make a statement in his own behalf but shall not present any witnesses. The District Superintendent shall preside throughout the proceedings, and shall certify and declare the judgment of the Committee.

Paragraph 934. If in the judgment of a majority of the Committee of Investigation there is reasonable ground for such accusation, they shall prepare and sign the proper charges and specifications, send a copy to the accused, to the Bishop in charge, . . . and to the Secretary of the Annual Conference. . . . .

Under these provisions of the law, the accusation must charge the accused of committing one of the offenses enumerated in said Paragraph 921. If, in the judgment of a majority of the Committee, the acts of the accused complained of do not constitute one of such offenses, the Committee has the right so to determine, and the District Superintendent "shall certify and declare the judgment of the Committee" to the Annual Conference. (See Paragraph 932, 1952 Discipline.)

On the other hand, if the acts of the accused complained of do constitute one of the offenses enumerated in Paragraph 921, then whether or not the accused admits that he committed such acts, the Committee "shall prepare and sign the proper charges and specifications."

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that if in the judgment of a majority of the Committee of Investigation the acts charged against the accused do not constitute one of the offenses enumerated in Paragraph 921 of the 1952 Discipline, the Committee has the right so to determine and it shall be the duty of the District Superintendent to certify and declare such judgment of the Committee to the Annual Conference.

It is the decision of the Judicial Council, however, that if the acts charged against the accused do constitute one of the offenses enumerated in Paragraph 921 of the Discipline, whether or not the accused admits such charges, the Committee of Investigation has no alternative but to prepare and file the proper charges and specifications.

Decision No. 90

Re: Ruling of Bishop G. Bromley Oxnam, at Newark Annual Conference, June 1, 1952, Interpreting the Effect of Section 4, Paragraph 806, of the Discipline of 1948

Request for Ruling

During the session of the Newark Annual Conference held at Jersey City, New Jersey, May 28-June 1, 1952, the Reverend William McLean Twiddy, chairman of the Commission on Ministerial Support of the Newark Annual Conference of The Methodist Church, requested on behalf of the Commission that the Bishop rule upon the following question:

> Are the provisions of Section 4, Paragraph 806, of the 1948 Discipline mandatory?

Paragraph 806, Section 4, follows:

> The Conference Commission on World Service and Finance shall estimate the total amount necessary to maintain the schedule of minimum support for the pastors thereof as adopted by the Conference which total amount shall be apportioned as an item of ministerial support to the districts or pastoral charges as the Annual Conference may determine.

Ruling

They are.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction to pass upon the above quoted ruling of Bishop Oxnam. (Sub. 3, Paragraph 43 of the 1952 Discipline, same being Sub. 3, Art. II, Division Four of the Constitution of The Methodist Church.)

Analysis

Subdivision 1 of Paragraph 806 makes it mandatory for every Annual Conference to "adopt a schedule of minimum support for its pastors, including full-time accepted supply pastors."

Implementing this mandatory provision, Sub. 4 of Paragraph 806 makes it mandatory that the Conference Commission on World Service and Finance estimate the total amount necessary to maintain such schedule, and that such estimated amount "shall be apportioned as an item of ministerial support to the districts or pastoral charges as the Annual Conference may determine."

Decision

Bishop Oxnam's decision being strictly in accord with the plain provisions of the law relating to the Minimum Salary Plan, as set out in Paragraph 806 of the Discipline of 1948, same is hereby in all things affirmed.

Decision No. 91

Re: Request of the Iowa-Des Moines Annual Conference for an interpretation of Paragraph 308 of the 1948 Discipline as amended by the 1952 General Conference

DIGEST

An unordained student pastor, who is a candidate for the traveling ministry, while serving as a regularly appointed pastor of a charge, may be authorized to administer the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper, and, if the laws of the state permit, to perform the marriage ceremony within the bounds of his pastoral charge, provided he has passed the course of study for Admission on Trial, but he may be excused from advancing in thte Conference Course of Study while attending a college or seminary "approved by the authorized standardizing agency."

STATEMENT

The Iowa-Des Moines Annual Conference of The Methodist Church at its 1952 Session, on motion of Dr. E. E. Voight, chairman of the Iowa-Des Moines Conference Board of Ministerial Training adopted the following:

> The Iowa-Des Moines Conference requests the Judicial Council to rule upon the effect of Paragraph 308 as amended by the General Conference of 1952, upon young men in college and seminary.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction to respond to this request under the 1952 amendment to Paragraph 914 of the 1948 Discipline authorizing Annual Conferences to petition the Judicial Council for Declaratory Decisions.

Analysis

Paragraph 308 of the 1948 Discipline as amended in 1952 reads as follows:

> An unordained pastor, only while serving as a regularly appointed pastor of a charge, may be authorized to administer the Sacraments of Baptism and The Lord's Supper and, if the laws of the state permit, to perform the marriage ceremony, within the bounds of his pastoral charge, provided:
>
> (a) He has passed the course of study for admission on trial.
>
> (b) And each year thereafter he passes one full year of the course of study, looking to full ordination. Failure to complete one full year annually shall cause suspension of this privilege.

In all foreign mission fields the conferring of such authority shall rest with the Central Conference in which the pastor serves.

The questions upon which the Iowa-Des Moines Conference requests a Declaratory Decision as expressed in a letter from Dr. Voight to the Secretary of the Judicial Council are as follows:

> Must they (student ministers) in addition to their regular school work, make regular advance in the conference course of study? Or can the end of Paragraph 304 (Paragraph 305, 1952 Discipline) be so interpreted that in making regular advances in the academic program they will be excused from the conference course of study and still be allowed to administer the Sacraments in their student charges?

We may assume that the unordained student pastor is a licensed local preacher and has passed the course of study for License to Preach listed under Paragraph 2043 of the 1952 Discipline. If he is to qualify for administering the Sacraments it is clear that he must also comply with the requirement of Paragraph 308 (a) by taking the examinations for Admission on Trial as listed under Paragraph 2044, 1952 Discipline. These two courses have been termed "Orientation Courses" and are not considered in the same category as the regular courses of study listed under Course I, Paragraphs 2045-2048, and Course II, Paragraphs 2052-2055. It would seem that the framers of the legislation governing the courses of study regarded knowledge of the books listed in Paragraphs 2043 and 2044 for local preacher's license and admission on trial as basic, almost indispensable training for the young man who is to preach the Gospel and administer the Sacraments, whether he attends college and seminary or not.

Paragraph 305 states:

> In the case of local preachers who are candidates for the traveling ministry, examinations may be suspended while they are pursuing regular courses of study in our theological seminaries or in universities and colleges approved by the authorized standardizing agency.

There can be no doubt that this suspension of examinations was intended to apply only to the "course of study looking to full ordination" referred to in Paragraph 308 (b) but not to the "Orientation" course of study for admission on trial referred to in Paragraph 38 (a). Paragraph 2041, Sec. 4 specifies that

> Paragraph 2044 indicates the four books required for: (a) Admission on Trial into an Annual Conference unless candidate furnishes equivalent Seminary credits; (b) authorization for an unordained supply pastor to perform ministerial functions as set forth in Paragraph 308; (c) an introduction to the four year course of study specified for full-time supply pastors in Paragraph 320.

Then in the same Paragraph, sections 5 and 6 indicate the persons for whom the Courses I and II are intended. They are either the persons who do not have a seminary degree or full-time supply pastors or other local preachers. Paragraph 2041, Section 9 quotes Paragraph 305 by way of emphasis.

All of the above emphasizes the fact that suspended examinations apply only to the four year courses of study "for conference members" indicated in Paragraphs 2045 to 2048, and the four year course of study "for supply pastors and local preachers" indicated in Paragraphs 2052-2055.

Decision

It is the decision of the Judicial Council that an unordained student pastor who is a candidate for the traveling ministry while serving as a regularly appointed pastor of a charge is authorized to perform ministerial functions as set forth in Paragraph 308 if he has passed the course of study for admission on trial even though he may not be eligible for admission because of other Conference standards or requirements. But having passed the course of study for admission on trial, examinations may be suspended on the regular four-year Conference Course as long as he is pursuing courses of study in a college or seminary "approved by the authorized standardizing agency."

Decision No. 92

Re: Power of an annual conference to authorize a hospital owned by the conference to borrow money

DIGEST

An annual conference may authorize a subsidiary hospital corporation to borrow up to a certain percentage of the value of its property for the purpose of its expansion program. When appraised as provided in the resolution under consideration it cannot be held that such resolution authorized an unlimited incurring of indebtedness.

JURISDICTION

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction under Paragraph 909 of the 1952 Discipline which authorizes the Council "to pass upon the decisions of law made by the bishops in annual and district conferences."

STATEMENTS OF FACTS

The Good Samaritan Hospital is a corporation whose trustees are elected by the Kentucky Conference and are under the control of the conference. They ask for authority from the conference to incur, if necessary, a maximum indebtedness of 25% of the evaluation of its land, as fixed by the Board of Trustees of the Good Samaritan Hospital, hereinafter called the Board of Trustees, and 25% of the evaluation of the property fixed by the Kentucky Actuarial Bureau for the purposes of insurance, such 25% to be based on such evaluation statement next preceding the time of incurring such indebtedness. Marcus C. Redwine, hereinafter called the appellant, questioned the power of the conference to grant the request and asked for a ruling on the following question:

> In the request submitted by the Board of Trustees of the Good Samaritan Hospital, owned by the Conference, is there not implied, if not expressly stated, a surrender of the sovereign power and discretion, vested in the supreme body to the Board of Trustees, the subordinate body? Can this Conference legally authorize said Board to provide its own means and power to incur unlimited indebtedness against the assets of this Conference? In the final analysis, does not the Conference have to say, "What is the highest debt limit that may be legally placed against the hospital?"

The request of the trustees was granted by the conference. The next day the presiding bishop, William T. Watkins, made the following ruling:

> The Kentucky Annual Conference is within its rights to grant the Good Samaritan Hospital the right to incur indebtedness up to twenty-five per cent of its appraised assets. No request was before the Conference for unlimited indebtedness.

Analysis

By his first question the appellant asked if the conference did not surrender its sovereign power and discretion to the Board of Trustees, a body subordinate to the conference. The contrary was the fact. The Board of Trustees in asking the conference for authority to incur indebtedness acknowledged the superior power of the conference.

The second question apparently asked if the Conference can give the Board of Trustees power to incur debt without limit and pledge the assets of the conference. This is contrary to the fact. Instead of being unlimited in indebtedness it was limited to 25% of the value of the property of the hospital corporation based on evaluation statement next preceding the time of incurring such indebtedness. Therefore, there is a limit of indebtedness satisfactory to the conference which authorized the same. In this instance the only assets of the conference authorized to be pledged are the assets of its subsidiary corporation.

The third question asked if the Conference does not have to say what is the highest amount of debt that the hospital can incur. Probably the appellant means to ask if the Conference is not required to state in dollars the limit that can be borrowed. In stating the percentage of the value of the property that can be borrowed, the Conference fixed a limit. However, since Paragraph 631 of the 1952 Discipline distinctly implies that an Annual Conference can obligate itself, it is obvious that the Conference may authorize a subsidiary corporation to incur indebtedness and not fix the limit. Such, however, was not the case here.

Decision

It is therefore the decision of the Judicial Council that the ruling of Bishop Watkins be and it is hereby affirmed.

Decision No. 93

Re: Ruling of Bishop W. T. Watkins at the Kentucky Conference, August 29, 1952, on question of quorum necessary for Quarterly Conference Business

DIGEST

No quorum is necessary for a session of the quarterly conference and it is legal to reduce the number of the trustees in a church from nine to three to comply with the state law.

STATEMENT

The first Quarterly Conference of the Mead Memorial Church, Russell, Kentucky, was held October 31, 1951. At the fourth Quarterly Conference held on July 13, 1952, the legality of actions taken at the first Quarterly Conference was questioned on the ground of there being no quorum present and also on the ground that the Quarterly Conference had no legal authority to reduce the number of trustees from nine to three. The District Superintendent ruled that it does not require a quorum for a quarterly conference to transact business and that the Quarterly Conference had the auhority and duty, as it did, to reduce the number of trustees to three in order to comply with state law.

Appeal was made from the District Superintendent's ruling to the presiding Bishop who in the session of the Kentucky Conference on August 29, 1952, sustained the ruling of the District Superintendent.

Jurisdiction

The Judicial Council has jurisdiction under Paragraph 909 of the 1952 Discipline which authorizes the Council to "pass upon the decisions of law made by the bishops in annual and district conferences. . . ."

Analysis

Provisions of the Discipline governing Quarterly Conferences do not include any statement concerning quorums. (1952 Discipline, Paragraphs 137-154.) Neither by law, tradition, or practice is a quorum required for a Quarterly Conference. Such requirement is provided for only two of the conferences of Methodism, namely, the Jurisdictional Conference (1952 Discipline, Paragraph 527) and the General Conference (1952 Discipline, Paragraph 503.) In Decision

No. 36, May 9, 1946, the Judicial Council held that no quorum for an Annual Conference is established in the law of the Church.

The action of the Quarterly Conference reduced the number of trustees to three as required by the statutes of Kentucky (Kentucky Revised Statutes, 1948, 273.100). This statute provides for a religious society to have from "one to three trustees in whom legal or equitable title to the society's property shall be vested for the use of the society." The Discipline of 1952, Paragraph 721, states that

> "Whenever the law of the state, territory, or country in which is located any property of The Methodist Church, its agencies or subdivision, or the provisions of an existing charter of a corporation organized and holding property for such purposes, require otherwise than in this chapter prescribed, such law or charter shall apply and be substituted for such of the provisions of this chapter as are in conflict with such law or charter."

The action of the Quarterly Conference in reducing the number of trustees to the maximum number permitted by Kentucky State Law is in harmony with this paragraph and the Quarterly Conference therefore acted properly in the premises.

Decision

The ruling of the Bishop that no quorum is necessary for a session of the Quarterly Conference, and that a regular Quarterly Conference with a limited number present was within its authority, and in compliance with the Kentucky Statutes, in reducing the number of its trustees to three, is correct. The ruling of the Bishop is therefore affirmed.

INDEX OF ANNUAL CONFERENCE MINISTERIAL MEMBERS

The following is a list of the Conference Members, including Probationers, whose present relation to the Church is recorded in this volume. The figure before each name represents the year in which the man was received into Full Membership. Where the figure is omitted there is a question about the exact year and the matter is being investigated. The star (★) indicates that the name will not appear in the General Minutes next year, the man having been removed by death, discontinuance, location, withdrawal, or expulsion. Boldface type indicates that the preacher is retired. The superior figure in the page number is the column in which the name appears. The editor of the General Minutes will appreciate information which will increase the completeness and accuracy of this record. Address him, The Statistical Office, 740 Rush St., Chicago 11, Ill.
